

SOCIAL SKILLS & SENSORY NEEDS SUPPORTING YOUR CHILD WITH AUTISM

Gina Cosgrove, Psy.D.

Virtual Discussion

Monday, April 24

6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

The Scotia-Glenville CSD Pupil Personnel Services Department invites families to join us on Google Meet for a discussion about Autism Spectrum Disorder with Dr. Gina Cosgrove.

This parent training will focus on strategies for supporting social skills and sensory needs for children and adolescents both at home and in the school environment.

Participants will be encouraged to share stories, ask questions, and collectively brainstorm strategies for helping children with autism achieve success.

About Dr. Cosgrove

Gina Cosgrove is a New York State Licensed Psychologist who specializes in conducting evaluations for children and adolescents on the autism spectrum and is a consultant for local school districts.

Dr. Cosgrove is the founder of Chelsea Place Psychological Services, PLLC. She also teaches a graduate course in development at the University at Albany.

Meeting Link:

meet.google.com/pod-ghwm-faa

Need help logging in?

Please contact Catie Magil,
Director of Pupil Services

- cmagil@sgcsd.net
- (518) 347-3600 x 74102