WHAT IS THE CENTER FOR SPORTS MEDICINE?

OrthoNY provides athletic training services to Burnt Hills, Duaneburg, and Glens Falls high schools. We provide high quality, cost-effective means of caring for all athletes at these schools. The athletic trainer is knowledgeable, motivated, caring and has become part of these communities. Our presence at these schools has increased awareness to athletes, parents, coaches and administrators about injury care, prevention and management. We provide a hands on approach to the Athletic Training Program. Our commitment is evident in how we deal with the injured athlete, communicate with the coach, and inform parents about their child's injuries. Our relationship with the coaches is unmatched.

Athletic Training Services

OrthoNY provides athletic training services to area high schools, sports clubs and recreational organizations. The Center has the largest athletic training staff in the Capital Region. We employ four certified athletic trainers that are contracted to area high schools, provide game and event coverage and have clinical responsibilities in our Schenectady and Clifton Park locations. The athletic trainers are certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the NYS Department of Education. Our program has been in existence since 1988, providing quality health care to many high schools, colleges, and recreational athletes. Our Athletic Training Program is the first step that ensures the athlete receives the best care available.

Resources available

Our athletic trainers have available to them a full service sports medicine center, 37 orthopedic surgeons in nine locations that are strategically placed throughout the capital region, 15 physical therapists, 23 physician assistants and full x-ray facilities at all of our locations. We have a group of professionals that specialize in the treatment of athletic injuries and an orthopaedic urgent care service open six days a week. These professionals are responsible for the safe expedient return of the athlete to participation. Our team approach to treating the injured athlete is very successful. Our athletic trainers, physical therapists, and orthopedic physicians are in constant communication about an athlete's treatment and eventual return to his or her sport. This approach guarantees continuity in care and high degree of patient satisfaction. It also keeps the cost of medical treatment down; in many cases our physicians will refer the athlete back to the athletic trainer for the rehabilitation of the injury, avoiding time and money spent going to physical therapy. Sometimes formal physical therapy is unavoidable, and that's where our program is unique. Our therapists will work closely with our athletic trainers at the schools, making sure treatments continue outside the therapy clinic, and that the proper progressions are made. This will also expedite treatment and keep treatment cost low, a growing concern to parents and administrators. Here is a list of Resources that orthoNY has available to better treat your athletes:

Physical Therapy
Urgent Care
MRI Services
Electromyography (EMG)
Outpatient Surgery Center
Orthopaedic Urgent Care
Pain Management

Who do we service?

The Athletic Training Program exists to provide proper health care to the high school athlete. Research done by NATA demonstrates that schools that employ a certified athletic trainer have lower injury rates, lower re-injury rates, fewer lost days due to athletic injury and an increased awareness on the management of these injuries. Our services are an integral part of the success of the student athlete, providing a positive environment to their healthcare. The success of our program comes from our involvement in the total program. We work closely with the coaches, keeping them informed on their injured athletes, being a resource for injury prevention and conditioning programs, and being a liaison between coach and parent when it comes to athletic injuries.

The certified athletic trainer also is a resource to the school physician and school nurse in the treatment of athletic injuries. Keeping parents informed is also a major responsibility of our program. When an athlete is injured, the parent is informed on the extent of the injury and given advice on what the next step should be in their child's care. Our communication with the parent reinforces that our primary goal is the health and wellbeing of their child. We have nurtured a high degree of confidence with the athletes, coaches, physicians and parents in the schools we service.

Why does our approach work?

Our program started in 1988. Since then, we have had a chance to fine tune and improve on our product. Because of increased awareness in the area of sports medicine, people expect more for their child's safety in sports participation. We have led the way in the Capital region by employing qualified enthusiastic professionals to carry out our mission statement. Improvements in the program are made by surveying coaches and administrators, talking to parents and measuring outcomes. We take pride in bringing the newest and current treatment techniques to the student athlete and coach; our availability to them is unmatched. When an athlete is injured, we act promptly to get them to the next step. The resources available to the athletic trainer make it possible for treatment to be readily available. This instills confidence in the parent, athlete and coach that a proper diagnosis is made, and that a goal-oriented treatment plan is put into place.

These systems exist because the athlete, parent and coach are entitled to accurate information. This prevents the "rest for two weeks" mentality. If we can expedite treatment, the lost time due to injury is significantly decreased. Our quality of care to the injured athlete is high because of early intervention and continuity of care. Our team members have a common goal – to return the injured athlete back to participation as soon as safely possible.

RE: Saratoga Hospital Contract

Attached please find the 2026-27 Health Services Memorandum of Agreement with Saratoga Hospital. It mirrors the 2025-26 agreement and has a 3% price increase for this year. This represents the seventh year of this partnership with Saratoga Hospital; however, the relationship with the physicians employed by the hospital dates much farther back.

Once the contract came under the umbrella of Saratoga Hospital in 20/21, the initial cost was $600 per month per physician (there were four physicians servicing the district). In 23/24, the number of physicians was reduced to three. However, the services provided increased that year as the doctors agreed to prescribe occupational and physical therapy for students referred by the Committee on Special Education and enter those prescriptions through eMed-NY. This allowed us to claim the therapy costs and resulted in an increase in our Medicaid reimbursements. All services provided under this agreement continue to meet the expectations of the district.

YEAR	COST	$ INCREASE	% INCREASE
20/21	$28,800
21/22	$28,800	$0	0%
22/23	$32,400	$3,600	12.5%
23/24	$36,000	$3,600	11.11%
24/25	$37,800	$1,800	5%
25/26	$37,800	$0	0%
26/27	$39,000	$1,200	3.17%

I respectfully request that this agreement be submitted for Board approval at the July 13 meeting. Thank you.

RE: Village of Scotia SRO Contract

Attached please find the 2026-27 Village of Scotia and Scotia-Glenville Central School District Resource Officer Agreement. The term of the Agreement is from September 1, 2026 through June 30, 2027 and allows for two renewals of one year each. Each renewal is subject to BOE approval.

The Village obtained a grant that funded approximately one-half of the cost for three years. The District is able to benefit from one more year of grant savings, which requires grantees to assume a progressively larger share of the cost of the SRO with local funds over the grant period. The historic total cost of the SRO and the cost to the District are reflected below. The Village initially budgeted a new officer rate; however, the District is benefiting from a seasoned officer so the new agreement reflects a blended rate.

YEAR	COST	VILLAGE GRANT	SGCSD GF SHARE	INCREASE TO SGCSD SHARE
22/23	$5,464	0	$5,464	Cares Act (part-time Community Resource Officer)
23/24	$81,245	$41,667	$39,578	Full-time SRO
24/25	$82,870	$41,667	$41,203	$1,625 or 4%
25/26	$84,527	$41,667	$42,860	$1,657 or 4%
26/27	$102,250	$42,129	$60,121	$17,261 or 40%

11. Responding immediately to ensure safety in times of crisis or conflicts and providing follow up to proactively prevent future problems.
 111. RE: Student Board Member
CC: Rick Arket, Marissa Gordon, Kerry Piaggione

This memo is to recommend Junior Conor O'Rourke to the Board of Education as a Student Member of the Board for the 2026-2027 School Year. Conor was one of four students nominated and approved by the High School Student Senate (elected leaders of the Scotia-Glenville student body). Mrs. Gordon, Ms. Piaggione and Mr. Bednarek interviewed all four candidates and selected Conor based on his interest, experience, and interview with the team. We believe that Conor will represent the entire student body at Scotia-Glenville in an exemplary fashion while offering a serious and valuable contribution to the discussions of the Board of Education.

The other three students are to be commended for their willingness to serve and the committee is also recommending Michael Lape to serve as an alternate for Conor should instances arise during which he is unable to attend a meeting.

Please consider extending any training, mentorship, and/or orientation that may be available to Conor and Michael as they prepare for this responsibility. We are confident that these two young people will serve their school and community well for the 2026-2027 School Year.

Scotia-Glenville Central School District Professional Development Plan

2026 - 2027

Scotia-Glenville Mission Statement

"The Scotia-Glenville Central School District is committed to providing an environment which allows students to realize their full potential and thus prepares them for life in an ever-changing world. In the tradition of excellence, the Board of Education, administration, staff, parents, and business and community members will continue to ensure that our educational system fulfills the needs of our students."

Professional Development

Committee Members

Superintendent Designee	Rick Arket, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction
Administrators	Marissa Gordon, K-12 Director of Social Studies and English Matt Hubbell, K-12 Director of Health and Science John Geniti, Lincoln Principal
Teachers	Christina DarkAngelo-Wood, Mentor Coordinator and High School Liz Rockwell, Middle School Joyce Semerad, High School Tracey Morrison, Sacandaga Elementary Jess Meere, Sacandaga Elementary Bridget Sand, Lincoln Elementary Amanda Kuhn, Middle School Deb Byrne, Middle School

This plan reflects a process Scotia-Glenville Central School District uses on an annual basis. It is not a specific plan but rather a framework to guide the committee and the district in the plans for improving student learning, engagement, and achievement.

The Scotia-Glenville Central School District's Professional Development Plan is based on the following tenets:

The plan will:

- center on the two primary drivers of the student experience: Academics and the Whole Child
- be based on an ongoing data driven inquiry cycle
 - We will collect and analyze data, make decisions based on the data sets, implement activities, and reflect on and analyze the results
- relate to the district/school goals that are aligned to the New York State Learning Standards
- be data driven and research based
- involve teachers in the identification of their professional development needs
- align with the District's Instructional Technology Plan
- allow for professional development that is continuous and ongoing, and involves follow-up and support for further learning
- ensure the appropriate resources will be allocated to support the professional development goals
 - The expenditures will be evaluated and tracked

New York State Education Department Regulations and Requirements

Scotia-Glenville Central School District has been approved for the School District Waiver CR Part 154 Professional Development Requirements Specific to English Language Learners. We will continue to apply for the waiver until the ENL population increases to 5% or more of our total population.

See Attachment I for submitted waiver.

New faculty who are not permanently certified will be responsible for engaging in 100 hours of professional development activities over a five-year period. It is the expectation of our district that staff successfully complete approximately 20 hours per year for two reasons:

1. To spread out the experiences of being able to implement the newly-learned material and information.
2. To balance teacher absences due to staff development in order that student learning is not compromised by having substitute teachers too often.

At this time, and without any change to negotiated agreements, this requirement will only affect teachers newly certified and who replace their Initial Certificate with a Professional Certificate. It is the Professional Certificate that requires renewal and the 100 hour requirement. At the same time, level III teaching assistants with new certifications will have to meet a 100 hour staff development requirement over 5 years.

As of 2004, all newly certified teaching staff are required to participate in a mentoring program in their first year of employment. Scotia-Glenville has had a mentoring program in place since September 2004. Newly hired teachers at Scotia-Glenville were assigned a mentor regardless of experience in the profession or, in the judgment of the administration, might benefit from a mentor.

Please see Attachment II for the full Scotia-Glenville Mentor Plan.

- Content area(s) of the certificate(s) held, and/or
- Pedagogy , and
- Language Acquisition addressing the needs of English language learners.

The CTLE in the content area can be in the content area of any certificate held, including certificates not subject to CTLE (e.g., Initial, Permanent certificates). CTLE activities in pedagogy could be appropriate general pedagogy or pedagogy specific to the content area of the certificate(s).

University or College Course Credits

Courses completed at an institution of higher education (IHE) can count towards the CTLE requirement only if the IHE is an approved CTLE sponsor and awards CTLE clock hours for the courses. For credit-bearing university or college courses, each semester-hour of credit is equal to 15 clock hours of CTLE, and each quarter-hour of credit is equal to 10 clock hours of CTLE. For all other approved CTLE activities, one CTLE clock hour is a minimum of 60 minutes of instruction/education.

Working with Colleagues and Student Teachers

Principals acting as independent trained evaluators who conduct a classroom observation as part of the teacher evaluation system pursuant to Section 3012-d may count such time towards the CTLE requirement. The acceptability of other types of collaborative work between educators will be determined by the district and the CTLE clock hours will be awarded accordingly.

Teachers who provide mentoring may, at the discretion of the district, earn CTLE clock hours in the following manner

- Teachers acting as a mentor to a new classroom teacher as part of the district's mentoring program may credit up to 30 hours of such time towards their CTLE requirement in each five-year registration period.
- Teachers acting as a mentor to a teacher candidate may credit up to 25 hours of such time towards their CTLE requirement in each five-year registration period.

The district will keep records within the Educational Vistas StaffTrac Professional Development module and award CTLE certificates, as shown in Appendix III, for educators who earn CTLE clock hours by working with colleagues and student teachers, documenting that they approve of the CTLE as the approved CTLE sponsor.

National Board Certification

Educators who earn certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards have met the CTLE requirement during the registration period in which the National Board Certification is achieved, provided that the educator also meets the CTLE language acquisition requirement.

Educators who Hold Multiple Certificates

Educators who hold one or more certificates subject to CTLE could complete acceptable CTLE activities in the content area(s) of their certificate(s) and/or in pedagogy.

For example, an educator who holds Professional Biology, Professional Chemistry, and Permanent Earth Science certificate could complete acceptable CTLE activities in biology, chemistry, earth science, and/or pedagogy, in addition to CTLE activities that satisfy the CTLE language acquisition requirement. An educator who holds Professional Childhood Education and Professional School Building Leader certificates could complete acceptable CTLE activities in the common branch subject areas, school building leadership, and/or pedagogy, in addition to CTLE activities that satisfy the CTLE language acquisition requirement.

Speech and Language Disabilities Certificate Holders

For educators who hold the Professional Speech and Language Disabilities Certificate, courses taken from an approved American Speech-Language Hearing Association (ASHA) CE provider are acceptable towards meeting CTLE requirements as long as they are documented with the ASHA CE Registry. One ASHA CEU equals 10 hours of CTLE.

Maintenance of Records

The district will issue CTLE certificates of completion (Appendix III) and maintain records for all CTLE activities within the Educational Vistas StaffTrac Professional Development module. The district will keep all records for a minimum of 8 years.

The district will continue to inform educators about CTLE regulations and changes as they are implemented. Educators will not send documentation of their CTLE clock hours to the Department for the re-registration process. However, such records must be retained for at least three years from the end of the registration period in which the CTLE was completed and be available for review by the Department upon request.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

According to the research presented by the National Commission on Teaching and America's Future, up to 30% of teachers nationally leave teaching before their second year. Another large group of teachers leave in the first five years of teaching. Lack of support for new teachers is often given as the reason for the significant attrition rate among new teachers. A mentor teacher program is an integral component of a comprehensive induction effort that supports teachers, and is an important part of a teacher's continued development throughout their professional career. It provides newly-hired faculty members with strategies to become confident skilled professionals, and encourages both new and experienced teachers to become reflective about their profession as they fulfill their teaching responsibilities.

As of 2004, all newly certified teachers are required to participate in a mentoring program during their first year of employment. The mentoring program is also essential to the professional development of our more experienced teaching staff. Adding a mentor-teacher program to our Professional Development Plan is an important component in hiring, training, and retaining excellent teachers for the District. Building a mentoring relationship for newly inducted teachers welcomes them into the profession, offers them high quality, personalized support, and assists them in the effective practice of their craft. Mentoring programs have been effective in stemming teacher attrition (Bullard, 1998) and appear to significantly impact a new teacher's skill development and self-confidence as a teacher (NYSED, 1989).

The mentoring relationship is central to an effective experience. The mentor possesses organizational skills and the wisdom of experience that buoy the energy, enthusiasm, and eagerness of the newly-hired faculty member. Sharing these qualities leads to a more productive and satisfying experience for the newly-hired faculty member. A positive mentoring relationship emerges and develops as the newly-hired faculty member experiences that support and feedback from the mentor. In general, the relationship is characterized as professional, flexible, trusting, and mutually educational. It thrives on sustained and frequent contact. The mentor also provides a safety net for the new challenges that face the new teacher. A mentor program should develop into an effort that is rich and rewarding, not just for the new teachers to the profession, but as well for the professional development opportunities of the experienced teachers in the district.

2.0 PROGRAM GOALS

The major goal of a mentor teacher program is to enhance student performance by providing opportunities to advance teacher effectiveness. In this model, experienced teachers work collaboratively with newly-hired faculty members sharing their experiences and addressing the need and concerns of the less experienced professional. Both the experienced and newly-hired faculty member benefit from a model that is based on a belief that teacher learning is a prerequisite for student learning.

The Scotia-Glenville mentor program provides an opportunity to:

- Attract highly qualified professionals to the District
- Welcome, acclimate and integrate newly-hired faculty members to building, District, and community culture
- Support integrate newly-hired faculty members and mentor teachers by providing time for self-reflection and exploration of proven practices
- Provide newly-hired faculty members with skills to address the diverse needs of our population
- Promote collaboration as an essential part of the profession
- Retain highly qualified teachers
- Enable newly-hired faculty members to meet certification requirements
- Offer professional growth for both newly-hired faculty members and mentor teachers
- Enhance instruction and overall student performance

3.0 SELECTION PROCESS

At Scotia-Glenville, the mentor program will have candidates selected into a pool of experienced teachers who are willing to serve as mentors in a three-year rotation, with a minimum commitment of two (2) years in active mentoring of new teachers, if needed. Teachers in this pool can be active for all three years that they are identified as mentors. Training will be provided each summer through BOCES, the Greater Capital Region Teacher Center, or a local consortium of schools who share resources. However, every effort will be made to standardize the training received. Additional training opportunities will occur throughout the academic year [see Preparation and Support of Mentors].

Selection of mentor teachers will be completed through an application process reviewed by a mentoring subcommittee of the Professional Development Committee. Representatives from the Scotia-Glenville Teachers Association, (including teachers from the elementary, middle, and high school levels), and members of the Administrative Council will serve on the mentoring subcommittee. There will be a balanced number of teachers and administrators on this selection committee.

Selection of mentors is a critical aspect of a successful mentoring program. As needed, the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction (ASCI) will send an invitation to all tenured teachers inviting them to consider participation in the mentor program. Whenever a request for applications goes out to the district, the ASCI will hold an informational session for teachers who are interested in applying. To be considered for a mentor role, teachers may be nominated by their principals, supervisors, colleagues, or through self-nomination. A nomination form will detail the criteria for the mentor role and the qualifications the teacher should possess for that role. The actual application form will also show the same criteria. The goal is identify a pool of mentor teachers willing to serve a three-year period, and who agree to work actively at least two years with newly-hired faculty members, if needed.

3.1 MENTOR ELIGIBILITY

The selection criteria for the mentoring application process will include:

- Tenure
- Positive professional demeanor
- Match to existing needs of the district
- Evidence of participation in ongoing professional development
- Passion for teaching and learning
- Success in teaching
- Evidence of strong communication skills
- Willingness to share

Appendix A contains the application that will be used by the mentoring subcommittee for the review of mentor candidates. Among its questions is a request for a reflective essay and a signature of support from the candidate's immediate supervisors. All application materials will be submitted electronically to the ASCI's secretary.

3.2 PROCESS

The process of applying to become a mentor and the subsequent work of the selection subcommittee is summarized in the following 10 items:

- Prospective mentor submits application to ASCI's secretary (including reflective essay)
- Mentoring Subcommittee of the Professional Development Committee, comprised of teachers and administrators, reviews applications and selects those mentors that best meet the needs of the district.
- Mentoring sub group of the Professional Development Committee submits the final mentor list to the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction.
- The ASCI, in collaboration with the mentor coordinator, will review the list of mentors and, based on information not available to the selection committee, modify if necessary.
- The ASCI will submit the final mentor list to the Superintendent for his/her approval.
- Upon approval by the Superintendent, all applicants will be informed of the results of the selection process by the mentor coordinator.
- Status as a mentor extends for the entirety of their employment. Mentors wishing to be removed or placed on leave may do so by notifying the mentor coordinator.
- Mentor applications will be accepted periodically based on the needs of the district.
- An informational session will be offered after the applications have been received.
- Mentoring training will be provided based on anticipated need for active mentors.

An applicant who is not selected as a mentor can inquire of the ASCI about the reasons for not having been accepted. The ASCI will respond in a timely manner to the applicant.

3.3 PAIRINGS OF MENTORS AND NEWLY-HIRED FACULTY MEMBERS

Assignments of mentoring pairings will be made by the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction in consultation with the mentor coordinator and appropriate administrative supervisors. Every effort will be made to create pairings of mentors and newly-hired faculty members who work in the same building in the district. Only under extenuating circumstances will this tenet be violated.

Mentor pairings will continue for one year. Pairings can be continued into a second year to an extended mentor/new teacher role as determined by the mentor coordinator. A year two mentoring assignment will represent a pairing that occurs because of a need for less than a full-time relationship and shall include a time commitment that is approximately half that of a full mentoring relationship. Input to the mentor coordinator on extended mentor assignments can be given from the mentor, newly-hired faculty member, or supervisor of the newly-hired faculty member, but this input must be given in a fashion that is confidential and in no way reflects collaboration of the parties involved. Upon receiving information from different sources, the mentor coordinator will make a determination whether to approach the beginning teacher with the opportunity to continue for an extended mentor pairing in the second year. The final decision of accepting or rejecting this opportunity will be that of the newly-hired faculty member.

The mentor coordinator will periodically review the mentor pairings by interviewing the mentors and new teachers involved. The mentor coordinator will determine the instances when it may be best to adjust and change a pairing and may choose to consult with the ASCI about this decision. If a change is deemed necessary, the mentor coordinator will initiate a process with the ASCI by which a new assignment is made for the newly-hired faculty member. The mentor coordinator will be responsible for notifying the parties involved of the impending change.

3.4 WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO RECEIVE MENTORING

In the Scotia-Glenville Central School District, professionals meeting all of the following criteria are eligible to be assigned a mentor:

- All new faculty members will be provided a Scotia-Glenville mentoring experience tailored to their needs.
- Classroom teachers, including regular substitutes, as required by New York State.

Part time teachers who meet the criteria set forth in this section will be expected to participate in a full-time mentoring program.

Every effort will be made to assign mentors to other professionals (social workers, psychologists, library media specialists, speech therapists, guidance counselors, and nurses). These pairings will depend on the availability of mentors in the same field and most certainly may involve out-of- building assignments. The District is not required to offer mentoring to teachers who have received mentoring in another district, but nevertheless may choose to make that assignment available to the newly-hired faculty member. In addition, teachers NOT meeting all of the criteria listed above may be assigned a mentor.

It is rare that professionals in the district such as social workers, psychologists, library media specialists, nurses and speech therapists, have a colleague doing the same work in the same building. Given this particular circumstance of support staff in our district, it may be necessary to create a combined mentor team for support staff that brings together two half-time mentors, one of whom is in the building but in a different job capacity, and one of whom is in the same professional position but located in another building. The roles of the two mentors in this triad would be different. The mentor in the same position would be there for assistance and support of job-related duties while the mentor in the building would be there to help acclimate the newly-hired faculty member to the culture and processes of the building. In a conventional mentor pairing, both roles would be assumed by the mentor.

4.0 PREPARATION AND SUPPORT

An effective mentor program will help newly-hired faculty members improve their teaching practices and learn the professional responsibilities of education. They will be involved in activities that will assist this acclimation as they become integrated into the Scotia-Glenville school community. The veteran or mentor teacher is afforded the opportunity to reflect upon teaching practices and engage in a learning community that will embrace those new to the profession. The collaborative activities of both newly-hired faculty member and mentor teachers will ultimately contribute to an improvement in student learning.

Newly-hired faculty members will first learn of the district mentor program during the interview process. All newly-hired faculty members will be expected to participate in the mentor program. The initial mentor activities will begin at a mentoring overview meeting. During this session newly-hired faculty members will learn about their responsibilities and roles regarding the mentoring program. Mentor teachers will be introduced at the meeting and have an opportunity to meet with their mentee.

4.1 VARIED TRAINING MODELS

Meaningful training is as important as mentor selection for an effective program. The mentor-training model will occur in several phases. Selected mentors will participate in formal mentor training as the need arises for mentoring assignments. The District will strive to coordinate this training through the Greater Capital Region Teacher Center, Capital Region BOCES, Clarkson University, or partnership with other districts. Ongoing professional growth opportunities involving mentoring will also occur throughout the academic year. The planning for these opportunities will be the joint responsibility of the Professional Development Committee, the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction, and the mentor coordinator.

Active mentors and newly-hired faculty members are expected to participate in the ongoing professional development activities for mentoring. However, all selected mentors will be invited to participate in some of these professional development opportunities. Non-active mentors who engage in mentoring staff development will be eligible to accumulate in-service credits, if eligible for their participation, including the ability to aggregate these hours and experiences over the academic year.

There are several options for ongoing mentor training and support and these opportunities will be offered through varied scheduled options. Time during the school day will be designated for teacher development and events. A pool of three days of release time per year for each active mentor and all newly-hired faculty members will be available for mentoring activities. This is in addition to time required for the mentor program during or outside the school day. The mentors and newly-hired faculty members may plan to work in half or full-day time periods.

Other possible professional development offerings include:

- Mentor support and development after school to be offered to the pool of mentors, including active and non-active mentor teachers.
- Opportunities for mentor activities during district conference days.
- Online courses on aspects of mentoring for active and non-active mentors

4.2 FURTHER PLANNING AND RESOURCE ACTIVITIES

The focus of the initial mentor teacher training and ongoing professional development support activities is teacher development. Professional growth opportunities will be available for the pool of selected mentor teachers, as well as newly-hired faculty members. Newly-hired faculty members and active mentors are expected to participate in the mentor program opportunities during the academic year. Specific topics or areas for mentor development are identified through the research on effective mentor models. These areas can include, but are not limited to:

- Adult learning theories
- District philosophy and goals
- Observation and feedback
- Peer coaching
- Interpersonal skill development
- Classroom management
- Problem solving/troubleshooting
- Effective teaching and assessment strategies
- Reflective practices
- Organizational skills
- Time management strategies
- Stress management strategies

Other areas for training are especially relevant to the newly-hired faculty members. Observation, parent/teacher communication, special education overview, and school community goals and philosophy are critical for a comprehensive mentoring program.

An ongoing needs-assessment through regular communication with the newly-hired faculty members, mentors, mentor coordinator, and Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction will identify other areas for future mentoring preparation and support. Mentors and newly-hired faculty members will document their activities and submit identified needs to the Professional Development Committee through the mentor coordinator. The mentor subcommittee of the Professional Development Committee will distribute surveys to mentors and newly-hired faculty members in October to gather information related to the mentoring program. A program evaluation in May will include feedback from the mentor and newly-hired faculty members, as well as the program surveys.

The mentor coordinator and the mentor subcommittee of the Professional Development Committee will collect feedback from the mentors and research the current resources for district mentor activities. A collection of mentoring resources are available for use. Trained mentors will be involved in a process to select materials that will be distributed to each active mentor. The mentor coordinator will communicate with the mentor specialists and representatives from other districts for input regarding meaningful mentoring resources. The process to develop teacher development resources will be ongoing.

4.3 REMUNERATION

Effective mentor programs need administrative support and adequate funding. The newly-hired faculty members will benefit personally and professionally through participation in mentor program activities. The newly-hired faculty member will also accrue the experience (CTLE hours, if applicable) necessary to meet professional certification requirements required by New York State. The mentor teacher's role is critical in a program designed to positively impact learning and teacher retention. The teachers selected as mentors, who are then trained and matched with newly-hired faculty member, will receive

- $1,000 stipend for full mentoring
- District approved summer curriculum rate for mentor training

In the case of mentors in a reduced mentor capacity, the stipend will be pro-rated to agree with the reduced designated level of the mentor participation. Remuneration for the mentor who has a relationship interrupted will be pro-rated to the amount of time served with the newly-hired faculty member.

4.4 CTLE CREDIT

Effective December 31, 2019 (not retroactive), Educators acting as a mentor to a new classroom teacher as part of a school district's mentoring program may, at the discretion of the school district, earn credit up to 30 hours of such time towards their CTLE requirement in each five-year registration period. Educators acting as a mentor to a teacher candidate may, at the discretion of the school district, earn credit up to 25 hours of such time towards their CTLE requirement in each five-year registration period.

5.0 ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The assignment of mentoring pairs depends on subject area and on grade level. An almost inviolate tenet is that the mentor and newly-hired faculty member work in the same building. When possible, the mentor will work with a newly-hired faculty member in the same subject area at the secondary level or the same grade span (primary, intermediate) at the elementary level. In some instances, however, a mentor may work with a newly-hired faculty member in a related field or in a different grade span. A team model of mentoring may also be used in certain situations so that one of the mentors is located in the building and can assist with the culture and processes of that building while the other mentor may work outside the building, but be responsible to assist with the specific discipline. Each of the mentors in the team situation would then be assigned as half-time. This scenario most likely would occur for support staff pairings such as social workers and psychologists.

Mentors are the year-long coaches of our newly-hired faculty members and carry with this role vast responsibilities. Among these responsibilities are to:

- Attend mentor training;
- Participate in mentor activities at the summer new-teacher orientation program;
- Participate in mentoring staff development activities during and after school hours;
- Work with newly-hired faculty member for up to a one year period of time;
- Observe or meet with the newly-hired faculty member or perform research for the relationship for up to 60 hours per year;
- Keep a log or journal of activities including dates, meeting times, and topics discussed;

- Invite the newly-hired faculty member into the mentor's classroom for observations;
- Visit the newly-hired faculty member's classroom for observation and providing of feedback;
- Share information with the newly-hired faculty member related to building or district procedures, guidelines and expectations;
- Promote self-awareness and facilitate reflective practices;
- Link newly-hired faculty member to appropriate resources;
- Share teaching and classroom management strategies;
- Offer guidance related to scheduling, planning, and organization.

At the same time there are parallel responsibilities of the newly-hired faculty member, some of which are to:

- Participate in the new-teacher orientation program;
- Participate in mentoring staff development activities, during and after school hours;
- Work with the mentor teacher for up to one year. This can be extended, if needed, for a second year;
- Observe or meet with the mentor for up to 60 hours per year;
- Keep a log/journal of activities including dates, meeting times, and topics;
- Invite the mentor into new teacher's classroom for observations;
- Visit the mentor's classroom for observation;
- Share questions and concerns with the mentor related to building or district procedures, guidelines, and expectations;

- Engage in self-awareness and reflective practices;
- Explore teaching and classroom management strategies;
- Seek guidance related to scheduling, planning and organization.

5.1 MENTOR COORDINATOR

The role of a mentor coordinator is essential to the smooth functioning of the mentor program. This is the person who will act as the manager of any process inherent in the mentor program as well as being the chair of the mentoring subcommittee of the Professional Development committee. The selection of the mentor coordinator is the province of the Professional Development committee and in the case of multiple nominations for this position, the committee should vote on the nominees in such a manner as to have a single person gain a majority of the votes of the committee. This may involve some type of run-off process.

The role of the mentor coordinator will be characterized by working closely with both the mentors, newly-hired faculty members, and Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction. In a sense, the coordinator of the mentor program is the bridge between the mentors, newly-hired faculty members, and the administration of the district. In every case, the mentor coordinator should be a member of the Scotia-Glenville Teachers Association or a retired teacher. Remuneration for this position will be a stipend of $1,200 for each year of acting as coordinator. The amount of release provided to the mentor coordinator will be three days. Specific responsibilities of the mentor coordinator should include but not be limited to:

- Chair the mentoring subcommittee of the Professional Development Committee;

- Develop, administer, and analyze evaluation surveys in collaboration with the mentor subcommittee;
- Organize the mentoring portion of the New Teacher summer orientation;
- Develop, in conjunction with the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction, staff development opportunities for mentors and newly-hired faculty members both during and after the work day;
- Organize, in conjunction with the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction, training for the new mentors scheduled to become active;
- Track the mentor pairings and the active mentors;
- Determine, with input from various sources, the need for extended mentor pairings to a second year.

5.2 CONFIDENTIALITY

It is critical that everyone involved in the mentor program appreciate the confidential nature of the mentoring relationship and understand that the mentor's role is not evaluative. The mentor teacher must have an absolute understanding that professional or personal information about the newly-hired faculty member cannot be shared with anyone else in the organization including (and especially) the supervisor(s) of the newly-hired faculty member. Only in this way can trust be built between the mentor and newly-hired faculty member, and only in this way can the mentor program not become an arm of the important but separate functions known as supervision and evaluation.

It is envisioned that the mentor can and should be in touch with the mentor coordinator, especially as it regards the decision to be made about a continuation year for the mentoring relationship. Input regarding this decision will also be supplied by supervisors of the newly-hired faculty member and as well by newly-hired faculty member. Under no circumstances, however this input should be given to the mentor coordinator in a collaborative fashion between supervisors and mentors.

5.3 WHAT'S POSSIBLE IN A PAIRING

The all appointed mentors would receive a stipend. The full year stipend is currently $1000 and will be pro-rated for other tiers.

1. Tier 1 Full year mentoring (Sept to June) (60 hours)
 - This will be provided for any newly-hired faculty member who require mentoring for NYS certification
 - Includes 3 release days
2. Tier 2 Half year mentoring (Sept to Jan) (30 hours)
 - This will be provided for any newly-hired faculty member who is new to district and have less than 5 years of prior teaching experience
 - Includes 2 release days
3. Tier 3 Quarter year of mentoring (Sept to Nov) (15 hours)
 - This will be provided for any newly-hired faculty member who is new to district and more than 5 years of teaching experience
 - Includes 1 release day

6.0 EVALUATION

The district will make every effort to gather relevant data regarding the mentoring program, evaluate data on a regular basis, and make every reasonable effort to augment, adjust and improve the existing program. Evaluation of the mentoring program will include an examination of existing mentoring relationships, a record of activities engaged in by those participating in the program, and evidence of the mentoring program's degree of success. The outcomes of the evaluation program will include but not be limited to: adjusting the status of mentor pairings; identifying and enhancing the use of those professional development activities that provide the greatest gains for mentors and newly-hired faculty members; and recommending program changes that are procedural in nature.

One of the primary objectives of the mentoring plan is to help new faculty members through the difficult first year. Research indicates that many bright and capable teachers leave the profession after experiencing a lack of consistent and effective support in their first year. However, it should be recognized that in some cases, the departure of a teacher from the district might not be related to the effectiveness of the mentoring program and may in fact be best for both the newly-hired faculty member and the District.

In order to assess the effectiveness of the mentoring program in the short term, mentors and newly-hired faculty members will be required to complete semi-annual program assessment surveys. This survey will be designed to establish the relative health of the mentor/new hire teacher relationships, the effect of the mentoring program on the newly-hired faculty members' professional progress, procedural changes that could enhance the program, and those activities judged to be most helpful to the newly-hired faculty member. The mentor coordinator and the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction will evaluate results of the survey.

At the end of the year, mentors and newly-hired faculty members will complete a full year program evaluation, and as a group, meet to discuss the findings. The objectives of this evaluation will be similar to those of the semi-annual surveys, but will focus on the entire mentoring experience. Again, the results will be analyzed by the mentoring coordinator and the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction.

One of the goals of the mentor program is to ensure that the mentor teacher's participation will have positive outcomes for both the mentor and the new faculty member. In addition to investigating the positive effects on the newly-hired faculty member, the semi-annual and year-end evaluation results will be used to analyze the program's effect on the experienced teacher acting as mentor.

In an effort to establish the effect of the mentoring program on the new teachers' development of skills, the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction will review all new teacher observations and evaluations. The mentoring relationship must be kept as free as possible from the influence of evaluation; however the use of evaluations should help to identify, to some degree, the effectiveness of the program. Again, this evaluation must be done without prior data for comparison. Despite this, every effort will be made to identify those elements of new teacher progress that are influenced by the mentor program.

6910.5 FUND BALANCE CLASSIFICATION

For purposes of fund balance classification, if expenditure could be spent from more than one category of fund balance, expenditures are to be spent from the restricted fund balance first, followed in order by committed fund balance, assigned fund balance and lastly, unassigned fund balance. The Board has the authority to deviate from this policy if it is in the best interest of the District.

By no later than the last Board meeting in June of each fiscal year, Board action will be taken to increase, decrease, or carry forward the full balance in any of the District's reserve funds. The Board should use reserves to the extent that the annual operating budget cannot absorb any unanticipated financial events such as losses, shortfalls or revenue, and/or rate increases.

6910.6 Retirement Contribution Reserve Fund and Retirement Contribution Reserve Sub-Fund

As a part of the 2019-2020 Budget Legislation, New York State has amended certain provisions of section 6-r of the General Municipal Law, relating to Retirement Contribution Reserve Funds.

Section 6-r of the General Municipal Law allows a school board to establish a reserve fund to be known as the Retirement Contribution Reserve Fund ("RCRF") and Sub-Fund to be used for the purpose of financing retirement contributions, and/or to finance appropriations authorized by law to offset all or a portion of the amount deducted from the moneys apportioned to the school district from the state for the support of common schools.

The term “retirement contribution” is defined as all or any portion of the amount payable by a school district to the New York State and Local Employees Retirement System (“ERS”) or the New York State Teachers’ Retirement System (“TRS”) pursuant to Education Law section 521.

If the Board of Education establishes an RCRF pursuant to section 6-r of the General Municipal Law, for the purpose of financing retirement contributions to the ERS, the Board of Education may also create a “sub-fund” within the RCRF, which is to be separately administered, for the purpose of financing retirement contributions to the New York state teachers’ retirement system and/or to finance appropriations authorized by law to offset all or a portion of the amount deducted from the moneys apportioned to the school district from the state for the support of common schools.

The Scotia-Glenville Central School District Board of Education has established a fund to be known as the Retirement Contribution Reserve Fund (“RCRF”), as well as a sub-fund to be known as the Retirement Contribution Reserve Sub-Fund (“RCRS”), to be separately administered within the RCRF, and additional contributions from future budgetary appropriations or raised by taxes; or from such revenues as are not required by law to be paid into any other fund or account; or transfers from other reserve funds as permitted by law, to be used in accordance with applicable laws for the purpose of paying retirement contributions to the New York State and Local Employees’ Retirement System or the New York State Teachers’ Retirement System.

Scotia-Glenville School District
Scotia, New York

To: Susan Swartz
From: Andrew Giaquinto
Subject: 2026-27 Tax Warrant
Date: July 9, 2026

Attached please find the 2026-27 tax warrant and tax levy resolution for your review and BOE presentation. The tax rate increase for the Scotia-Glenville Central School District for the Town of Glenville and Village of Scotia residents will increase by 2.03% for 2026-27 based on final equalization rates and assessed values received from ORPS and local assessors respectively. The tax levy is based on utilizing $3,631,058 of fund balance (prior year budget $4,359,058). The tax rate per $1,000 for the three towns within the school districts is as follows:

Town of Amsterdam	$ 248.09315	8.49% increase
Town of Charlton	31.73285	13.33% increase
Town of Glenville	25.45277	2.03% increase

The tax levy will increase by $615,267 to $35,108,110. We can expect about 6% or $2,000,000 to be derived from STAR (prior year $2,094,121). The levy reflects an increase of 1.78% from the prior year which is right at the maximum allowable tax levy cap of 1.78% and reflects the amount approved by a simple majority of the voters this past May.

The 2026-27 tax rate increase is less than the 2.54% rate increase that was projected before the budget vote. At that time, we incorporated the $11.2M decline in assessed value anticipated by Belgioioso Cheese coming off the tax roll and returning to PILOT status. The loss of Belgioioso's assessed value was offset by other assessed value growth of $7.6M. The actual change in assessed value from 25-26 was a decline of $3.6M (prior year growth was about $26.5 million). The projected impact on a property assessed at $160,000 will be an increase of $81 before STAR. Last year, the increase amounted to $57 before STAR.

The Basic STAR and Senior STAR exemptions will be calculated by a formula provided by ORPS to our tax preparer. The Basic STAR exemption savings is $551, and the Enhanced STAR exemption savings is $1,199.

The tax rate and tax levy comparisons follow:

YEAR	TAX RATE	TAX LEVY
2026-27	2.03% increase	1.78% increase
2025-26	1.44% increase	3.25% increase
2024-25	1.39% increase	2.83% increase
2023-24	1.49% increase	2.99% increase
2022-23	1.00% increase	1.61% increase
2021-22	.45% decrease	.13% increase
2020-21	1.78% increase	2.66% increase
2019-20	2.73% increase	2.54% increase

Board of Education
Scotia-Glenville Central School District
Scotia, New York

Dear Members of the Board of Education:

After much reflection and with consideration, I am writing to formally notify you of my retirement from my position as Superintendent of Schools for the Scotia-Glenville Central School District, effective June 30, 2027.

Serving as a superintendent for the past twenty-one years has been an honor. Throughout my career, and especially during my time in Scotia-Glenville, I have been privileged to work alongside dedicated board members, administrators, teachers, support staff, parents, and students who have shared a commitment to educational excellence and student success.

I have greatly enjoyed my years with the district and have been fortunate to call the Scotia-Glenville community my home. Together, we have faced challenges, celebrated accomplishments, and continuously worked to create opportunities for our students to learn, grow, and thrive. I am immensely proud of all that we have accomplished as a Board of Education, administrative team, staff, parents, and students. The collective efforts of so many individuals have strengthened our schools and positively impacted the lives of countless children and families.

Please accept this letter as my formal notice of retirement, effective June 30, 2027. In accordance with the terms and conditions of my employment agreement and applicable district policies, I will retain my health and dental insurance benefits during retirement.

I look forward to the coming school year and the opportunity to "wrap up a few items" before I step down. Thank you, and our prior Board members, for the trust, support, and partnership you have extended to me throughout my tenure. It has been a privilege to serve this district and community.

With sincere appreciation,

Susan M. Swartz
Superintendent of Schools

Dear Superintendent Swartz and Mr. Giaquinto,

Please accept this letter as my formal resignation from my position as Transportation Supervisor, effective September 15th, 2026.

After much thought and consideration, I have decided to step away from my role and begin a new chapter in my professional and personal life. This decision was not made lightly, as my journey with the transportation department has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my career.

When I joined the department in 2012 as a bus monitor, I could not have imagined the opportunities that would come my way. Through hard work, dedication, and the support of many outstanding colleagues and leaders, I was fortunate to grow into roles of increasing responsibility, ultimately serving as Transportation Supervisor. I am incredibly grateful for the trust that was placed in me and for the experiences that have shaped me both professionally and personally.

It has been an honor to work alongside such dedicated employees who share a commitment to the safety and well-being of our students and community. I am proud of what we have accomplished together and will always value the relationships I have built during my time here.

I am committed to making this transition as smooth as possible and will gladly assist my replacement with completing any outstanding responsibilities before my departure.

Thank you for the opportunities, encouragement, and support you have given me throughout the years. I leave with many wonderful memories and wish the transportation department as well as the school district continued success in the future.

Sincerely,

Clara Bisailon
